Cardiff

DPP's Cardiff office works for clients in Wales and the South West of England. As the largest planning consultancy in the Principality we advise a range of national and locally based, public and private sector clients on how they can meet the particular requirements of the Welsh planning system. We are working on projects across all of Wales's County Boroughs, from Anglesey to Monmouthshire. Our excellent local knowledge and contacts in all these areas and our ability to provide planning services in both English and Welsh means we have a strong reputation for delivering results for our clients.
